CLEVELAND, FINANCING.
Ins State Register.—In less than four months of the Cleveland Administration values have decreased in this country to the extent of $1,000,000,000.

St. Louis Globe Democrat.—If the country could believe in the Democratic party there would soon be plenty of confidence in the financial situation.

A NEW LINE OF THE
St. Louis Globe Democrat.—The bank failures are favorable to the Democrats in the respect that they compel the Administration to appoint receivers.

AMHARD.
Cleveland Leader.—American in plots is bright enough and there is plenty of it for Mr. Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle to see themselves in, but they don't enjoy looking at it, nevertheless.

A SOLEMN FACT.
Washington Post.—The esteemed Cincinnati Enquirer presents figures which show conclusively that Ohio would be a reliable Democratic state if the Republicans would only do a little less voting.

CONSOLING THE DISCHARGED.
St. Louis Globe Democrat.—It seems to be the policy of the Administration to console the Democrats for their disappointment about the offices by canceling the pensions of Union veterans at the rate of fifty per cent.

ONE COMFORT.
St. Louis Globe Democrat.—The Missouri Democrats are not getting any offices, but it is a comfort to them to know that the Supreme Court holds that they can no longer be sold at auction under the Vagrancy act.

GRIEVED.
Boston Journal.—It must wring the hearts of our Democratic Treasury officials to have to acknowledge that the Government has come out on the right side for the fiscal year 1892, and that that awful deficiency is a blunder.

THE CHAIR ON TOP.
New York Press.—Democratic leaders are about agreed that the next House of Representatives will have to adopt the rules of the Tom Reed Congress if any business is to be accomplished. Another Democratic grievance put in the stocks!

WEAKING OF CONFIDENCE.
DuPage Commercial.—There is just as much confidence now as there was before Cleveland was elected, but it is of a different kind among business men. It is confidence now that it was a big mistake to elect the Democratic candidate last fall.

ONE CAUSE.
Philadelphia Press.—If the provision of the Sherman act requiring our currency to be kept equal to gold had been obeyed by keeping the gold reserve intact, the distrust of our currency would never have reached the acute stage of the past month.

KNOWS HIS OBLIGATIONS.
Chicago Inter Ocean.—President Cleveland yesterday appointed three Southern men and one New York man to United States Consulates. Mr. Cleveland understands that the South and New York make up the rank and file of the Democratic party enlisted for the war.

DEPENDING ON THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.
Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.—It is on Republican prudence, sagacity and constructive skill that the country relies for wise legislation in the coming session of Congress. It is the hope of the people that when the time for action comes enough Democrats will adopt Republican ideas to insure the adoption of a currency system that will meet every requirement of soundness, safety and stability.

CONCISE AND INTELLIGENT EXHIBIT.
Syracuse Journal.—The New York Press shows clearly what a high price has been paid by the people of this country for the restoration to power of the Democratic party. The means of imparting this knowledge in a concise and intelligent manner is a list of securities dated in on the Stock Exchange in New York, with the amount outstanding, the price the day before Cleveland was elected, the closing price last Friday and the shrinkage in value.

THE banks of the state are preparing to resist the provision of the new revenue law which authorizes cities and counties to levy an additional tax, over and above the state tax of 42 cents. They will carry the fight to the United States Supreme Court if necessary. Democratic Administrations come high, but Kentucky must have one.

THE time of holding the Grand Jury Court has been changed by an act of the Legislature. It will convene July 17th. The weather is too hot for most of the lawyers to express the indignation towards those who were the cause of the change of the time of holding the court. Many cases will be continued, as attorneys will not have time to prepare their cases.

ENOUGH TO TALK.
The Editor of THE LEADER has acknowledged a present with a remarkable result. It is a bottle of blackberry cordial twenty-seven years old. It was made that long ago by Mrs. Carrie L. Davis, and was opened on Saturday, twenty-second anniversary of her son, Charles R. Davis.

LEAVES "THE LEDGER"
To accept a position in a prominent Banking Institution.

Saturday evening Samuel T. Hickman severed his business connection with THE LEADER.

THE change is purely voluntary on his part, and it is gratifying to know that the latter position "bought the man."

MR. HICKMAN has been connected with THE LEADER since its birth, and has contributed to it many special articles that have attracted wide attention. He is a graceful writer, and though he may not assert actively enough in journalism, it is more than likely that he may occasionally be heard from through these columns.

IN parting with him his late associates, while regretting the severance of uniformly pleasant business relations, with him every success in his new field.

THE position vacated by Mr. Hickman will be heretofore filled by William G. Jones, who is fully authorized to make all contracts and collections.

MR. JONES is a practical printer, a good writer and is the "right man in the right place" for the establishment—fighting for business.

Now is the time to subscribe!

Attempted Suicide.
Magill Miller, colored, of deeded sporting inclinations and a boarder at the mansion of John Madison Ford on Third street, was yesterday taken to the hospital by the morphine poison Saturday night. He procured the drug from another inmate of the house, and was given a quantity, and the desired result was not attained.

DR. J. J. JENNINGS was summoned and rendered medical assistance, and Magill is now on the road to recovery.

Magill became dependent upon the abuse and neglect of her lover, "Mandolin Dick," who has been in Cincinnati for quite a while, hence her attempt at self-destruction.

Jumped Mrs. Charles Crawford with Suicidal Intent.

Mrs. Lena Crawford, wife of Charles Crawford of Maysville, made an attempt at suicide about 10 o'clock Saturday afternoon by jumping into a well.

Mrs. Crawford went to the well to get a jug of milk which had been lowered into the well by her husband. She was there for the purpose of keeping it cool. Mrs. Crawford's mind has been deranged since the birth of a child which is scarcely two years old, and she is closely guarded by friends. Having been at the well an unusual length of time, she was discovered by her husband. Just as she opened the door in going from the house to look after her she saw her hand reaching and leaped into the well.

After Crawford and Mr. Sides' residence in recenting the unfortunate woman. She was not injured in any manner whatever. When asked why she attempted to kill herself she replied that she was the cause of too much trouble and wanted to put herself out of the way.

As above stated Mrs. Crawford's mind has been unbalanced for several months and her husband has been obliged to keep her in an asylum about two months ago, declined to do so, preferring to have her cared for at home by friends.

Thomas and his brother-in-law, Thomas Rupp, who were with him, were also injured. The wound on Thomas' back was a deep one and he is considerably under the influence of liquor.

Meeting Combs and his wife, Thomas, it is said, made a hostile remark about the wound on Thomas' back, and Combs, in reply, hit Thomas on the head with a brick. Thomas walked to the office of Dr. Owens, where his wound was dressed by Dr. Harver. Combs was taken to jail but afterwards released.

THE BEST CHANCE

Yet offered to Visit Chicago and the World's Fair.

An excursion, under the personal supervision of Thomas A. Garrison, will run to the World's Fair on Monday, July 10th, leaving Maysville by either morning or evening train, with through coaches and sleeping cars from Cincinnati.

The rate for the round trip will be $12.50, for first class, and including room for five days at the Rosemont Hotel.

The Rosemont is one of the leading hotels in Chicago, located on Washington avenue, at Eighteenth street. Cable cars pass the door and the elevated railway is one-half block distant.

Mr. Garrison is well and favorably known throughout this country, and anything he guarantees is entirely trustworthy. He assures THE LEADER that he has been all through the hotel and will personally remain there during the excursion.

This is an excellent opportunity to visit Chicago, and those who may avail themselves of it will be well to engage accommodations. There will be a diagram of sleeping cars at this city and tickets can be secured at once, and also hotel accommodations.

Not more than two people will be assigned to any room and guests will have free use of the hotel.

CHICAGO STORM.

The Yacht Chesapeake Capsized and Four People Drowned.

Many More Boating Persons Had Narrow Escapes.

The People in the World's Fair Ballroom last night were fascinated by the terrific storm which had been threatening for several days. The wind blew almost a hurricane, and the rain fell in torrents. The earlier part of the day was well nigh perfect, cloudless, and with a cool, gentle breeze blowing off Lake Michigan. The storm gathered in the afternoon, and the wind increased in violence. Nobody was looking for it or expecting it. All at once it was here, and the next minute it was sweeping over the city, leveling the trees and spreading death and destruction among the many pleasure boats which were out upon Lake Michigan. Many narrow escapes from death were experienced, but so far as known, the loss of life is limited to four, all of them lost by the capsizing of the sailing yacht "Chesapeake," which was overturned about two miles from shore.

The party on the boat consisted of four people, which was the "Chesapeake," which was overturned about two miles from shore.
